

Can't decide on which Hotel in Brighton to use? Then Check out our Hotels in Brighton Guide!

Genevieve Hotel

A Quality grade 2 listed guesthouse in the fashionable area of Kemptown. All rooms are well appointed with their own bathrooms.

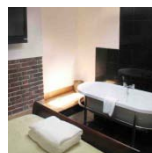

18 Madeira Place, Brighton

Hotel Una

Warm and friendly, elegant and fashionable, obsessive with detail. Classy Boutique hotel with the unique combination of contrasting textures, natural woods and contemporary artwork.

55-56 Regency Square, Brighton

Brighton Pavilions

Brighton Pavilions opened in May 2000 as one of the first exciting new boutique hotels in Brighton. With architect designed themed rooms that others seek to imitate, Brighton Pavilions today offers even more choices to those who wish to stay in comfortable surroundings with that home from home feeling.

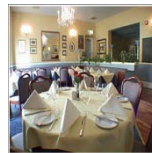

7 Charlotte Street, Brighton

Imperial Hotel

The Imperial Hotel is situated on the South Coast of England, close to Brighton and Hove seafront and within walking distance of Brighton's town centre, conference centres, the Royal Pavilion, piers, and the famous Lanes. The hotel features 76 bedrooms combining 21st century facilities with 19th century grandeur.

First Avenue, Brighton

Queens Hotel

At the Queens Hotel in Brighton, you will receive a warm welcome from our friendly and professional team. , one which will ensure your stay with us will be a truly memorable experience. The Queens Hotel Brighton overlooks the famous Brighton Pier and promenade with its amusements, cafes and attractions.

1-5 Kings Road, Brighton

Royal Pavilion Townhouse Hotel

The Royal Pavilion Townhouse Hotel has been sympathetically renovated and the unique hand-painted interiors have transformed this fine early nineteenth century building. Each room has a luxury bathroom, with a double shower or Jacuzzi bath. Several rooms feature four-poster or canopied beds.

12A Regency Square, Brighton

Amherst Hotel

Amherst Hotel is only a five minute walk from the buzz of Brighton's centre. Virtually on the sea front we are ideally located whatever your reason for visiting.

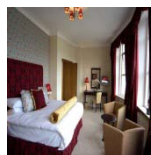

2 Lower Rock Gardens, Brighton

Lansdowne Place Hotel & Spa

One of Brighton & Hove's grandest old hotels is now projecting the boutique ethos on a large scale. The Dudley has reemerged as Lansdowne Place Hotel and Spa and promises to be one of Brighton & Hove's finest destinations.

Lansdowne Place, Hove

Hudsons Guesthouse

Hudsons is a luxury licensed guesthouse with a beautiful private garden providing quality bed and breakfast in the Kemptown area of Brighton. It has been redesigned & converted from an early 19th century townhouse to offer clean & stylishly comfortable rooms.

22 Devonshire Place, Brighton

The Beach Hotel

The Beach Hotel together with the Regency Restaurant date back to early 1828's when the restaurant was Lawson Son jewellery shop and the hotel was St. Alban's Hotel. In 1930 Lawson Son jewellery shop became the Regency Restaurant and the hotel was renamed The Beach Hotel.

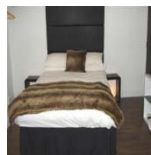

1-2-3-4 Regency Square, Brighton

The Pink Pavilion

"Elusive. exclusive.

12 Madeira Place, Brighton

Radisson Blu Brighton

Newly opened, following a multi million pound refurbishment, this hotel is the perfect destination if you're looking for a unique, opulent, cosmopolitan hotel in the centre of lively Brighton. The Hotel offers a selection of stylish boutique bedrooms which are superbly appointed and designed to provide a luxurious base for your stay in Brighton.

Old Steine, Brighton

Brighton Thistle The

Thistle Brighton is situated in a premier position on the promenade overlooking the sea and is within easy reach of all that the city has to offer, as well as being the perfect base for exploring the East Sussex countryside. Built around a spectacular atrium, this hotel has 208 air-conditioned bedrooms including deluxe suites.

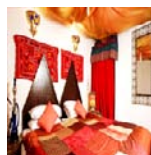

Kings Road, Brighton

Sea Spray Hotel

Brighton's newest themed boutique seafront hotel! If it is something a little special you are looking for - different from the usual Brighton guesthouse or hotel - then look no further than Sea Spray. Our unique themed rooms put a little fun back into the usual hotel experience to ensure that your visit to Brighton is a memorable one.

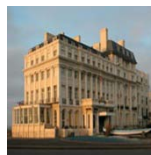

25 New Steine, Brighton

Royal Albion Hotel

The Royal Albion Hotel Brighton is a Regency style, warm and friendly accommodation built in 1826. It is a family run hotel in the richest traditional sense and enjoys a fantastic location just opposite the famous Brighton Pier.

35 Old Steine, Brighton

Best Western Brighton Hotel

The Brighton Best Western Hotel has an ideal seafront location with friendly and professional service. Many of the 52 bedrooms look out over the sea, with king size beds. The elegant lounge and restaurant also have commanding sea views.

143-145 Kings Road, Brighton

Hotel Nineteen

A beautifully designed and restored town house in the trendy Kemp Town part of Brighton. Front rooms have oblique views of the sea and Palace Pier just 200m away. A very short walk to the beach, restaurants, bars and clubs and just 5 minutes walk from the Lanes or the Royal Pavilion.

19 Broad Street, Brighton

Preston Park Hotel

The Preston Park Hotel Brighton is located just 5 minutes walk from Brighton Preston Park Station. The hotel is 20 minutes from historic Lewes with Lewes Castle, the famous Oriental Gardens and Anne of Cleves House. Five minutes drive from the hotel is the famous Devils Dyke, with excellent views, pubs and golf courses.

216 Preston Road, Brighton

The White House

The White House is a typically elegant Regency residence in the heart of Kemp Town and some 100 yards from the seafront. There are sea views from the south facing rooms and a courtyard garden where guests may sit and relax.

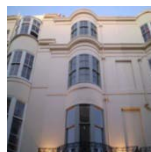

6 Bedford Street, Brighton

Kemp Townhouse

Kemp Townhouse is one of Brighton's finest luxury boutique hotels, located in a beautiful listed building in the heart of Kemp Town. .

21 Atlingworth Street, Brighton

Drakes Hotel

Independently owned and a true retreat from everyday life Drakes is a unique design led 20 bedroom 'hand-made' hotel, on Brighton's seafront. Everything about drakes is exceptional, from the impeccable service, to the opulent yet serene design and the critically acclaimed Gingerman restaurant.

44 Marine Parade, Brighton

